

Around the Barn at Canter Haven Farm

A great end to 2017 with the December Thoroughbred Holiday Classic! With two thoroughbreds, CHF traveled to Burbank California to support CARMA (California Retirement and Management Account) and the Thoroughbred Classic show. It was great to see all the OTTBs come together and show their many talents. Awfully Lucky and Last Caper were fabulous and had a great time. The Corgis - Hannah and Winston also got to participate in the festivities and won the best Holiday Barn Dog contest! We are looking forward to the new year with the CARMA Thoroughbred Classic at Galway Downs in March.

The OTTBs that joined Canter Haven in 2017

Kitchen, It Came To Pass and High Alert joined the CHF family. It Came To Pass ( aka Benny), who was found at a feedlot after no one bid on him at auction, turned out to be a super star in more ways than one. With a sweet personality, and willingness to take on any task, he was beyond what we expected (how could a horse like this end up on a feedlot?! He also was the champion of the Restart Division at the Pegasus Event Center Extreme Horseman's Challenge. Benny was adopted and is now the steady trail horse.

Kitchen had a chip in his knee so we took him to a specialist at Comstock Equine Hospital. They saved the chip for us as it was one for the biggest bone chips they have taken out of a knee. Kit is doing well and seem anxious to get back to work as he is now having enthusiastic moments in his paddock. He is currently doing groundwork learning the basics.

High Alert (aka Red) came back with us from the December California show. We picked him up at Los Alamitos and even got to meet his trainer. We really do enjoy talking to the trainers and owners as they know the horses the best so we get some insight into the TBs personality and such.

Upcoming Events for 2018

2017 year review - in photos!

It is good for your OTTB to be exposed to various things so get them out of the ring on onto the trails. The Jockey club even provides awards for recreational riding on your OTTB. Be sure to check out the Thoroughbred Incentive Program.
